OLD MASTER MAY BE THROUGH WITH GAME

CHRIST - MATHEWSON

This year may be the last that Christy Mathewson, probably the most famous and best known pitcher in baseball, will oppose the batters in the National League. All season Matty has shown that he has lost his old-time form, that he cannot be depended upon to pitch "air-tight" ball as he did in his prime. As a ball player Matty is old, though still in his prime as a man.

This season Matty has shown flashes of form, but the unfortunate moves proved to be nothing but flashes, and it is rumored about that at the close of the season the great Giant pitcher will announce his retirement. It is said that Mathewson has amassed a comfortable fortune from his large salary and careful investments, and if he does retire it will be with the good will and regrets of fans all over the country, for no player has proved to be more popular than the "Old Master."

to a 6 to 3 victory over the same team today. Boston freely hit both Douglas and Smith.

Wheat left the game with a strained ankle. The Braves played without Captain Evers, suspended for five days for his actions yesterday, and President Gaffney announced that Evers would be fined his salary for that period in addition. Schmidt and

TRIPLE STEAL BY BROWNS FEATURES

St. Louis, Sept. 3.—A triple steal, led by Shotton, gave St. Louis a victory over Detroit in the first game of their series here today, 3 to 2. With the score tied in the eighth, the locals filled the bases after two were out. As Dauss wound up, Shotton raced in from third with the winning run, avoiding Stange's attempt to tag him.

JOHNSON PITCHES IN OLD-TIME FORM

Washington, Sept. 3.—Washington's fourth victory of the series over New York today was a shutout, 2 to 0. Walter Johnson was threatened in the first inning, when Peckinpaugh's Texas leaguer was followed by Bauman's solid single, but Peckinpaugh was forced at third on the next play, he and Bauman being the only visitors to get as far as second base. Pieh was effective except in the sixth inning when Milan doubled, advanced on Shank's sacrifice and scored on Gandil's double. A single by Williams scored Gandil.

RUSS HALL HAS RESIGNED POSITION

Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 4.—Russ Hall, who for two years has been bench manager of the Tacoma Northwestern League baseball team, has resigned as the result of friction with President Joe McGinnity of the Tacoma club. Trouble came to a head when Hall and McGinnity disagreed over the substitution of a player.

"There can't be two managers on a team," said Hall in explaining his resignation.

THOUSANDS SEE 500-MILE RACE

New Snelling Speedway Opens With Fifteen Star Racers Flashing Around the Track.

Fort Snelling, Minn., Sept. 4.—Several hours before noon today—the time set for the start of the first 500 mile automobile race on the new Snelling Speedway, situated midway between Minneapolis and St. Paul—thousands of spectators were in the stands eager to see sixteen racers flash around the two mile oval course for prizes aggregating $50,000.

All save two of the drivers, had qualified their cars by circling the course at a speed of at least 80 miles an hour, but speedway officials announced that these two drivers, Oldfield and Brown, would be permitted to participate without the usual preliminary test.

Drivers and mechanics agreed that the track was in excellent condition and predicted that some records would fall. Because of his showing in the Chicago races and in the elimination trials here, Resta was a favorite today.

Weather conditions were favorable. The following cars and drivers were entered:

EAST AND WEST GOLFERS LINE UP

Final Round for National Amateur Championship Played Off on Detroit Course.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 4.—East and west were lined up against each other today in the final round of 36 holes for the national amateur golf championship on the course of the Detroit Country club. John G. Anderson, Mount Vernon, N. Y., and Robert A. Gardner, Chicago, were the sole survivors in the tournament that began a week ago.

Hot weather made the course extremely fast. This condition, it was believed, would slightly favor the New York veteran. He is quite generally conceded to be a better putter than Gardner and his supporters expect that his short game would overcome any advantage Gardner's tremendous drives might bring the latter.

Pick Anderson to Win.

Eastern experts picked Anderson to win, primarily because of his steadiness and consistent performances throughout the tournament. Westerners advanced the claim that Gardner, when playing at top speed such as he showed when he toppled D. E. Sawyer with ease Thursday, could give Anderson a margin of 1 hole in 36 and still win.

An exhibition game had been arranged to follow the finals. The Detroit Country club offered a trophy for a medal play round between Francis Ouimet, Jerome Travers, National open champion, and Charles Evans, Jr., holder of the western amateur title. The trio of champions often has been referred to as the "big three." Each of the players was eliminated from the championship fight before it had reached its most interesting stages.

Ellery H. Clark to Coach Harvard Field Athletes

Boston, Sept. 4.—Ellery H. Clark, former Harvard and Boston Athletic Association athlete, will succeed J. Fred Powers as coach of the Harvard field athletes when college opens in the fall.

Dr. Paul Whittington will enter the Boston City Hospital late this year, and the appointment means that Clark will assist Graduate Treasurer Fred W. Moore in the same capacity as did Dr. Whittington, who will assist Percy Houghton with the football coaching. Powers' work has been entirely satisfactory to the Harvard authorities, but the advent of Clark will solve the problem of finding a successor to Dr. Whittington.

factory to the Harvard authorities, but the advent of Clark will solve the problem of finding a successor to Dr. Whittington.

Clark is well versed in all branches of field sports, having won the all-round championship of the Amateur Athletic Union in 1897 and 1903. This title was won by J. Fred Powers, representing St. Paul's Lyceum, Worcester, in 1899.

Harvard's pole vaulters and high jumpers improved rapidly under the direction of Powers, but Harvard was weak, as usual, in the broad jump. High-class shot putters and hammer throwers also were not numerous.

It is said that the Worcester man will be offered the track coaching position at Brown University, vacated recently by the resignation of Edward O'Connor. Powers may accept the proposed offer.

William F. Donovan, familiarly known to Harvard men as "Pooch," has signed to train the Harvard football players and coach the track athletes for two more years.

JACK JOHNSON NOW AN ACTOR

London, Sept. 4.—Jack Johnson, the erstwhile heavyweight champion, is now an actor.

FRENCH RACERS WILL RE-OPEN

Paris, Sept. 4, 4:45 a. m.—Resumption of horse racing in France in the spring is being considered by the ministry of agriculture and by turf authorities, says the Petit Parisien.

It is proposed to hold private meetings with prizes provided from the reserve fund of the race track associations which, while far from amounting to the sums usually offered as purses for the classic events, would be sufficient to enable breeders to continue to improve their stock.

Announcement made yesterday that Edmond Blanc will sell his stable evidently does not mean his retirement from the track, for he has been one of the most active in promoting the resumption of racing. Mr. Blanc has been for many years one of the most prominent turf men in France.

FIFTEEN HORSES TO START IN FUTURITY

New York, Sept. 4.—Fifteen horses representing ten owners were carded as starters in the futurity stakes, the richest prize of the year for two-year-olds to be run today.

The total cash value of the stakes this year is $23,500 and the winner's share about $17,000. The distance, six furlongs, will be over a straight course, eliminating as far as possible the element of luck or accident. This is the twenty-fifth renewal of the futurity which for over twenty years was the feature of the Autumn meetings at Sheepshead Bay, but in the future it will be a fixture on the Belmont Park program.

Following are the names of the owners, horses, jockeys and weights: L. S. Thompson, Bromo (T. McTaggart), 126.
